BALLINTUBBER ABBEY

Dear Friend,

Another year has passed and I want to Thank You again for allowing pilgrims to walk on the Tóchar Pádraig through your land.

If you notice amiss after they walk, please let us know.

Those who walk the Tóchar find it a wonderful experience, challenging but uplifting.

The numbers are down slightly this year, as the wet weather was a feature. We wish the blessing of the Holy Family this Christmas and always.

Your sincerely.

Frank Doherty
